Dear Dr. Jill E. Gonzalez-Bravo,

On behalf of the CAEP Board of Directors, Accreditation Council, and CAEP staff, we would like to thank you for your recent participation and contribution as a site visit team member during the accreditation review at Appalachian Bible College. We recognize and appreciate your personal time commitment and your dedication to our profession in advancing the shared mission of improving equity and excellence in educator preparation.

As you know, the independence and integrity of CAEP accreditation process relies on the professionalism and volunteerism spirits of all our board members, councilors, and site visitors. Simply put, without the many dedicated volunteers, such as you, there is no CAEP.

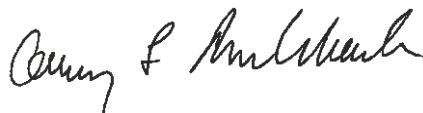

We hope that your experience as a CAEP site visitor was rewarding both personally and professionally. We welcome your feedback in this regard. Lastly, should you require a formal letter of recognition for your participation and contribution to CAEP for any professional purposes, please contact Lauren Alexander at lauren.alexander@caepnet.org for assistance.

Thank you again for your continuing interest and engagement with CAEP.

Sincerely,

Christopher Koch
President
